Your Punctuality Honours God

Jae: I was very impressed by the confidence that the students exuded. They ran their weekly church services with assuredness and joy! When they spoke to you, they looked at you in the eye - a mark of confidence and respect. Also, they are such thankful people! It was such a blessing to hear their spontaneous and heartfelt testimonies. The 'Thanksgiving' segment of their service was so lengthy and encouraging because they were just so forthcoming about sharing their thanksgiving with their brothers and sisters in Christ! On the 3rd Day Sat, we were stuck in traffic yet no one was complaining. And I think everyone was quietly praying for a breakthrough and indeed, God made a way! The cars started moving and before we knew it, we were turning into the dirt road leading to Roong village. We did what we set out to do there, albeit fewer heads to wash. Meeting and playing with the children was like our reward. Not to mention the delicious lunch prepared by the young church workers there!

Audrey: I've learnt that God has a heart for missions and that He will provide. I am encouraged by Pst Prasad's short preaching about faith, through the faith that he and his team had that they were able to continue ministering in Cambodia, and also the faith that God will continue to lead the way and they put their full trust in him. It's my first time organising a trip on such a scale, so I learnt patience and also helped improve my leadership. I realised my own flaws - namely attention to details and I also need to recognise my authority as leader to voice out any concerns I have so we can tackle them together as a group.

Samantha: I was impressed by the way the Cambodia church sang their worship to God - could see on their faces that they meant what they sang. I look up to our Cambodian brothers and sisters for worshipping God seriously, with genuine intent. During this mission trip, I learnt to not worry so much about what the future might hold because we can be rest assured that God will take care of it all. I saw God's faithfulness to the people who serve and reverently fear Him. Hearing from Pastor Prasad and Sister Abigail about the tough times that God has brought them through and His continual providence for their family and churches has really encouraged me. It comforts me and reminds me that our purpose in life is really made perfect in our pursuit of God. Just as long as we be obedient to God's calling, we will always be well provided for.

Trust and Experience God's Love

Contributed by Deborah Liow

Scripture:

I pray that out of his glorious riches he may strengthen you with power through his Spirit in your inner being, so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith. And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, may have power, together with all the Lord's holy people, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, and to know this love that surpasses knowledge—that you may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God. - Ephesians 3:16-19

Observation:

As we trust and rooted in God's love, we will experience the width, length, height and depth of His love. Though we may not fully understand God's love, but His love will make us complete.

Application:

Learn to trust and look up to God in this modern society, and not rely on solutions / resources or quick resolution which are readily available. Not to fear as God covers us with His love.

Prayer:

Dear God, thank you for Your love. Help us to trust and dwell in You, so we can experience the fullness of Your great love. In Jesus' name, Amen.
